

Begin Again

Mahalia

You left a like on my picture
So does that mean you're flirting with me?
You put something cryptic on Twitter
But I don't know if I should quote or retweet
I've noticed you're checking my Insta more than often
But, I know you don't follow me
I see that you follow my sister
Oh is that just so you can pree?

Don't you know the fear you feel
Is all a part of being real
If you wanna have my love, we must begin again
And you could get the train in vain
I'll be standing in the rain
We can't avoid the pain so let's learn to live again

You like to find me on Snapchat
So you can keep tabs on where I am
Well, hold on a minute - let's snap back
To when I'd be your girl and you would be my man
How are we supposed to understand
What we feel through a device?
You expect me to know what's going around in your head
But, I'm not psychic
Where's the light switch to your life?

Don't you know the fear you feel
Is all a part of being real
If you wanna have my love, we must begin again
You could get the train in vain
I'll be standing in the rain
We can't avoid the pain so let's learn to live again

I have had enough of this
I need me a real love
Don't need a guy that takes the piss
Or wears his mobile like a glove
I need a man, I need a side kick
Cause ain't nobody gonna tell me I'm a boys side chick

Don't you know the fear you feel
Is all apart of being real
If you wanna have my love, we must begin again
You could get the train in vain
I'll be standing in the rain
We can't avoid the pain so let's learn to live again, live again
We can't avoid the pain so let's learn to live again

You left a like on my picture, babe
Nah, nah, nah
I have had enough of this
I need me a real love
Don't need a guy that takes the piss
Or wears his mobile like a glove
I need a man, I need a side kick
Cause ain't nobody gonna tell me I'm a boys side chick
