Mahalia

Oh, I see you're heading for the blues
Well I know 'cause I was heading that way too
Oh, feeling like you're incomplete babe
It's part of being in-between
Oh, don't, don't-don't listen to that voice speaking
Before you know it you'll be diving deep into the place where nothing is

You are enough 'cause you're breathing and you're reaching and you're feeling and your heart is working overtime
You are enough 'cause you're pushing and you're smiling and you
're dancing
So what are you hiding for?
You are, won't you lift up?
See you, you're beautiful
You are, won't you lift up, yeah?
What are you waiting for?
You are, won't you lift up?
See you, you're beautiful
Won't you lift up, won't you lift up

Oh yeah, don't be walking with your mind shut
See I know really what you're thinking of Oh yeah, don't be sleeping with your eyes open
When you could be throwing doors wide open
Open, open, open, open

You are enough 'cause you're breathing and you're reaching and you're feeling and your heart is working overtime
You are enough 'cause you're pushing and you're smiling and you
're dancing
So what are you hiding for?
You are, won't you lift up?
See you, you're beautiful
You are, won't you lift up, yeah?
What are you waiting for?
You are, won't you lift up?
See you, you're beautiful
Won't you lift up, won't you lift up

Oh yeah (You are)
So what are you hiding for?
See you, you're beautiful
You are, won't you lift up? Oh
Oh yeah (You are)
What are you waiting for?
Won't you lift up?
