

Let It Go

MaheZ Zain

Life can be so hard sometimes
Break you up inside
All you want to do is cry
Shut the door and hide
Don't surrender to what was
Put your faith in what will be
Everyday is a brand new start

Let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go

Giving up should never be
Something you decide to do
Wipe the tears from your cheek
God knows what you're going through
So don't surrender to what was
Put your faith in what will be
Everyday is a brand new start, yeah

Let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go

I know it's hard but believe and keep trying
And it will be okay
'Cause in your heart is the strength to survive it
You will be okay
And in no time like the sun you'll be shining
Just let it go away

Let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go

Let it go away, let it go
Oh, let it go
