

Nighter

Mahmut Orhan

(Go though the night, where the shadow ignites)

I'm looking in the mirror and I'm so tired (so tired)
I look tired but still beautiful hahaha
It's slowly getting night
Nights are lovely but not when you're feeling lonely
I wanna sleep sometimes
I look at the bed when the night calls me
I'm about to sleep
I slept, finally
Nerdedim nerde olduğumu bilmiyorum

(Oh, wake up)

Go though the night, where the shadow ignites
A realm of mystery, where the stars take a flight
During flying hours, we discover our might
But everyone takes their moment, to say goodbye

The city is falling even the ground is looking for someone to t rust
I could trust, I could trust

It's risky I'm trying to be the one for turning heartaches into art
No cost, no cost

Who starts to call me nighter?
Who starts to call me nighter?

(Oh, wake up)

Who starts to call me nighter?
