

Perfect Skies

Main Attraktionz

I just wanna kick my feet up
Stacks some cheese and light my weed up with my niggas
Damn, do y'all really gotta act an ass though?
I know some niggas that I can't bring to the studio
I played coolio, I'm cooling yo, I'm in my zone
Miles away from home with acres of that shit you love
Let's make a wish to blow the swish
Self made on my wrist, classic on my wrist
That Main Attraktionz shit
Give me this pendant off this bitch, that 14k just glisten
Two sets like twins plottin' on the two seat Benz
And AHYVE gonna film that shit
While I whip that bitch and probably toss it to my nigga
That's how I do it jigga
Ain't ready for the world
Just finding my way in with the stars out at night

Perfect Skies
Perfect Skies
Perfect Skies
With the stars out at night
We blow a little weed
Perfect Skies
Perfect Skies
Perfect Skies

Ay, ay, ay
Just did a lot again, no time for bullshit
I wish I had the time, I tried to make the time
They tell me anything, I swear to God they lying
But anyway back to what I came to handle
12 inch blunts burning slower than candles
Fell off in the game with a custom made manual
Got a world over here, a kid from the block
They seen my face before so will they hate me at the top?
My first tat symbolized I can't afford a watch
Now I'm stacking up a lot, still feel broke
I tried to change the way I think from 3 years ago
Looking in the eyes like life this what I asked for?
My heart'll feel lucky, still striving with a blessing
But I'll always want more, so I'll never meet perfection
My heart'll feel lucky, still striving with a blessing
But I'll always want more, so I'll never meet perfection
Collected all my colors Rep that shit in here, a Perfect Sky

Perfect Skies
Perfect Skies
Perfect Skies
With the stars out at night
We blow a little weed
Perfect Skies
