Niggas out here throwin' dirt up on my neighbors
God Bless
I don't love'em I just try to cheer the game up
God Bless
I'm tryna win chips like LeBron James uh
God Bless
They just did you for the fame uh
God Bless
All I gotta say is God Bless [x4]

I do this for the riches I don't need the fame
God Bless all my niggas still movin' caine
Started out with nothing now look what we made
So even when they bury me they'll know my name
Oh God oh God I blew my money up in Aces
Ended up drunk then put my mouth on a waitress
All of them times we didn't shine now we made it
Rolling it dice lets say a prayer for the haters
Back to back foreigners like if I was Meech
They see me treat the Bentley like a Honda lease
Famous bitches on my line like they on a leash
God Bless all these hoe niggas rest in peace
