

Look At Me Now

Maisie Peters

I was shuffling my iPod
A Case Of You came on Reminds me of you
It hit like a hammer, now I'm pulling over my car
You're blurring the skyline
I'm struck by a blindside
Thing is that hindsight is a bitch when I've spent all this time tryna cut a ll my losses

Pack you in boxes
Sign it and dot it

Oh, I thought that I was safe
That I'd danced you all away in rounds
Thought I'd finally figured out
How to move alone
How to call somewhere a home without ya
But look at me, look at me, look at me now
I am missing you more than I should
Guess I'm not out of the woods
Yeah, mm-mm
I'm making a fool of myself
While you're happy with somebody else
Baby, oh, look at me, look at me, look at me now

I was faking a brave face when we met in the same place
Cold Harbour Lane, but you're giving sips of your whiskey to somebody new See you trying to impress her
Got my heart in a blender
'Cause now it's not me that you wanna see in your t-shirts, so I'm Tryna to cut all my losses

Pack them in boxes
Sign it and dot it

Oh, I thought that I was safe
That I'd danced you all away in rounds
Thought I'd finally figured out
How to move alone
How to call somewhere a home without ya
But look at me, look at me, look at me now
I am missing you more than I should
Guess I'm not out of the woods
Yeah, oh-oh-oh
I'm making a fool of myself
While you're happy with somebody else
Babe
Oh, look at me, look at me, look at me now

And I'm off the rails
Cigarettes when I don't smoke
I thought I had it
I, I thought I had it but I don't
Hail a taxi now
Give 'em your postcode
'Cause it's outta habit
I thought I had it but I don't

No, I don't

I thought that I was safe
That I'd danced you all away in rounds
Thought I'd finally figured out
How to move alone
How to call somewhere a home without ya
But look at me, look at me, look at me now
I am missing you more than I should
Guess I'm not out of the woods
Yeah, no
I'm making a fool of myself
While you're happy with somebody else
Baby
Oh, look at me, look at me, look at me now
