

Use Me

Maisie Peters

There's a lot of different ways that I can be
And I can change and start all over
I can say one thing, and then I'll take it back and count to ten
And say it better
And I can change my hair and change my style and change my lines
Yes, change the lines I say
Yeah, I can be anyone if that means I become the one you want to stay
I never thought that this would be the last time
Or that you could cut me lose
Coz I never thought that I would suddenly
Become the one you didn't choose
And I can change my hair and change my words but I can't change
How bad this hurts
I can't change the way my eyes won't shut
They gave up when you gave up us

But I can't care about anything
If I can't care about you
I can't accept this silence
I won't accept we lose
And you can't knock me breathless
And then find somebody else whose breath is new
Babe, you can use me
If you want to

I never thought I'd be the girl who played it all
And layed out all her cards
And I never thought I'd be the sort
To give up everything because he asked
But that was before I knew
Nothing felt as whole as having you
And though I'm just your option three
At least you still think of me
When she's not around
I'm what you need

Coz I can't care about anything
If I can't care about you
I can't accept this silence
I won't accept we lose
And you can't knock me breathless
And then find somebody else whose breath is new
Babe, you can use me
If you want to

Coz I gave up oxygen and, babe, I grew thicker skin
I adapted to be what you need
And you think I'm confident, but I overcompensate
For how much you don't see
So I pack a backpack and say "I won't look back"
That I deserve I'm done
But I can't pretend, I'll come back round again
Coz a little is better than none

Coz I can't care about anything
If I can't care about you
I can't accept this silence

I won't accept we lose
And you can't knock me breathless
And then find somebody else whose breath is new (whose breath is new)
Coz I can't care about anything
If I can't care about you
I can't accept this silence
I won't accept we lose
And you can't knock me breathless
And then find somebody else whose breath is new
Babe, you can use me
If you want to
