

A New Beginning

Majestica

At the crack of dawn a new tomorrow
(We're leaving our sorrow)
Sunlight hit the breaks, our flame ignited
Colors of dawn, in shades of new horizon
(That we have our eyes on)
Engine starts, you see the light and know we will unite

When you feel lost, just look up to the sky
See the stars, they will always be your guide

(Rise up high to the sky like fire)
You have come to the final hour
(We are here for your own desire)
Ready to go
Along the tracks, that's where you'll find
(Feel the power, the earth is spinning)
One to rely on
Where the end is a new beginning

High above the sky, the speed of light
(We're going into the night)
Calling out for more and we are rolling
What this future holds can not be seen
(We know it, we see it)
Take it from the start just when this journey comes to end

Though the path may twist and turn tonight
Grab your steel and together we will fly

(Rise up high to the sky like fire)
You have come to the final hour
(We are here for your own desire)
Along the tracks, that's where you'll find
(Feel the power, the earth is spinning)
One to rely on
Where the end is a new beginning

There will be new stories when we call for you
There will be no worries when we're calling out it's time
Time to go

When you feel lost, just look up to the sky
See the stars, they will always be your guide

(Rise up high to the sky like fire)
You have come to the final hour
(We are here for your own desire)
Standing strong like a heavenly screaming choir
(Rise up high to the sky like fire)
Crank up the volume, make it higher
(We are here for your own desire)
Along the tracks, that's where you'll find
(Feel the power, the earth is spinning)
One to rely on
Where the end is a new beginning
