

Don't leave this place
We'll be fine some day
Don't leave this place
We'll be fine some day

It's okay, if you are just as lost and as scared
As we all are when you're staring at the wall
It's okay, where we are, you should call when you're wide
Awake at night thinking there's nothing left at all

All is not lost, so put down both of your arms
'Cause even if it was, no shape, no ghost will save you now

A giant catacomb
This is the city of bones
But it's not as bad as it all sounds
It's better than the nothing
The nothing when we're finally gone

All is not lost, so put down both of your arms
'Cause even if it was, no shape, no ghost will save you now
All is not lost, so put down both of your arms
'Cause even if it was, humans do the saving anyhow

Never alone
We're not all alone
If you're calling late then I'll pick up the phone
If you need to feel safe I'll be the place that you call home

All is not lost, so put down both of your arms
'Cause even if it was, no shape, no ghost will save you now
All is not lost, so put down both of your arms
'Cause even if it was, humans do the saving anyhow

It's okay, if you are just as lost and as scared
As we all are when you're staring at the wall
It's okay, where we are, you should call when you're wide
Awake at night thinking there's nothing left at all
