Mend

Makari

Now just rest your head
You've been fighting for too long now
Let go of regret
Tears subsiding, there's just love now

Can you still feel my touch?
Heart is broken, words unspoken
Let time stand still for us
Keep me frozen in this moment

Just like the summer breeze
I feel you slip away from me
Where you'll be free
Away from the despair
A place where you're no longer scared
I'll meet you there

Showed me who I am
And through all the aches and pains
You're still running through my veins

But how am I supposed to find myself
When the greatest part of me
Fades from my reality?

Just like the summer breeze
I feel you slip away from me
Where you'll be free
Away from the despair
A place where you're no longer scared
I'll meet you there

My heart in your hands
Just live through me
You'll always be

And if this is the end
My heart will mend
My heart will mend
