

The Fall

Makari

Go on, save yourself
And become like someone else

But I can't trust myself
To follow the rules
If the whole world's burning down
It isn't for you

I watched your world cave in
You called it salvation
Suffering like you can't get enough
So far gone, hope you've enjoyed the fall
Like you don't even care at all

I know you're lost
But you're stumbling on and on
You're so far gone
Falling further into the dark

Don't blink now, I'll fade away
You've waited so patiently

But now I'm trying not to cross the line
I swear this happens to me every time
It's blurring everything that's wrong and right
And I dream about it every night

I watched your world cave in
You called it salvation
Suffering like you can't get enough
So far gone, hope you've enjoyed the fall
Like you don't even care at all

I know you're lost
But you're stumbling on and on
You're so far gone
Falling further into the dark
Further into the dark

Just look around
At those you've let down
And keep your crown of ashes
There's nothing left now
But the deafening sound
Of your self-serving actions

I watched your world cave in
You called it salvation
Suffering like you can't get enough
So far gone, hope you've enjoyed the fall
Like you don't even care at all

I know you're lost
But you're stumbling on and on
You're so far gone
Falling further into the dark
Further into the dark
