

Blue Romance

Make Out Monday

I can't take it, I won't be lonely, lonely
I won't fake it, you were the one and only
I can't take it, I won't be lonely, lonely
You know me better than anybody

Met you in the summer, but the summer was a bummer
'Cause as soon as it was over you were off to other lovers
Take off all your clothes and dip into the sea
You think this is hard for you, well, darling, what about me?

The universe used to revolve around me
Now it's only dark clouds of rain and only

It's a little game we play called "steal up all the hearts"
Find a little cutie, then stuff 'em in a jar
Now ya only need me, now ya never leave me
Staying on the couch, yeah, why you so needy?

We're caught in a blue romance
Have a heart given, baby, have a heart back
Like high school sweethearts that just got older
I know I'm gonna think about you ten years sober
Now we're caught in a blue romance
We're lost in a blue romance

I can't take it, I won't be lonely, lonely
I won't fake it, you were the one and only
I can't take it, I won't be lonely, lonely
You know me better than anybody

Cherry blossom fields in a city 'bout to burn
You were something good that I knew was bound to hurt
Like Elvis and Priscilla and Margret-Ann too
You find something beautiful and then you make it hate you

The universe used to revolve around me
Now it's only dark clouds of rain and only

So now ya only bleed me, now ya never need me
You're kissing all my friends, yeah, why you so greedy?

We're caught in a blue romance
Have a heart given, baby, have a heart back
Like high school sweethearts that just got older
I know I'm gonna think about you ten years sober
Now we're caught in a blue romance
We're lost in a blue romance

We can't let those broken hearts
Turn to scars in May
We can't let those blue stars
In your eyes fade away
We can't let those broken hearts turn to scars, and
Can't let those broken hearts turn to scars
And we can't let those blue stars, can't let those blue stars
Fade away

We're caught in a blue romance
Have a heart given, baby, have a heart back
Like high school sweethearts that just got older
I know I'm gonna think about you ten years sober

Now we're caught in a blue romance
Have a heart given, baby, have a heart back
Like high school sweethearts that just got older
I know I'm gonna think about you ten years sober
Now we're caught in a blue romance
We're lost in a blue romance

I can't take it, I won't be lonely, lonely
I won't fake it, you were the one and only
I can't take it, I won't be lonely, lonely
You know me better than anybody
