

Every Little Everything

Make Out Monday

How am I supposed to deal with all this bitterness?
I thought I knew everything, 'til I didn't know everything
Every little everything

Are we coming of age?
Are we coming of age? Yeah
A generation too late
I think we're coming of age

Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all your fury, darling
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk and sugar, whoa
Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all the venom, honey
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk and sugar, whoa

Let's hang the noose in reverse
Every little everything, every little everything
We'll make a good hurt
Every little everything, every little everything

Are we coming of age?
Are we coming of age? Yeah
You're always running your mouth, baby
You got nothing to say

Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all your fury, darling
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk and sugar, whoa
Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all the venom, honey
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk and sugar, whoa

How am I supposed to deal with all this bitterness?
(Every little everything)
You thought you knew everything until you didn't know everything
Every little everything

Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all your fury, darling
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk and sugar
Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all the venom, honey
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk
And sweet, sweet, sweet talk and-

Give me all your love, give me, give me all your love
Give me all your fury, darling
Put me on the run, pull the trigger while it's fun
Give me all your sweet talk and sugar, whoa
