

Mascara Lines

Make Out Monday

We've always loved the stranger things
Like vampires, the murder scenes
We dream of only black and white
There's cobwebs in our paradise
With scissors for hands and plastic hearts
We wait for the dawn to tear us apart
This valley's cold as the day that we left
We'll dance in the snow
I know you will miss him

But I think about you
All the time
All the time
(The good ones go too soon
The good ones go too soon)

So never mind the evil
This world is full of people that
Only exist to
Make us feel ugly

And never mind the terrors
We've got our house of horrors
Let's mummify the bodies
And burn all the money

'Cause I think about you
All the time
All the time
(The good ones go too soon)
And I wanna wake up to
Mascara lines
Oh darling, oh darling
(The good ones go too soon)

You bliss my dreams
You hold my nightmares
You are the ghost that shows up in the pictures
I'm missing your presence
You are the best that's ever happened

(The good ones go too soon)
