

Penniless And Broken

Make Out Monday

All I want is a picket fence
And a window to the sea
A little house with a crooked door
But it's warm when you're with me

Sitting on a pier singing songs to strangers
You said I look sexy, don't I?
I didn't know it then, but everything you said
Down to hello, was a lie

I'm penniless and broken for you
I'm penniless and broken for you
I wanna give you all I have
To watch you blow it like you always do
Like you always do

Sitting on the Ferris wheel (like you always do)
Shivering at my side
Just the waves of the pale blue ocean
And Santa Monica lives flying by

I wanna be a big man
Restless and alone man
Swinging from the top of the tower
Live life with no attachments, nothing too distracting
You got me wasting all my hours

I'm penniless and broken for you
I'm penniless and broken for you
I wanna give you all I have
To watch you blow it like you always do
I'm penniless and broken for you
I'm penniless and broken for you
I wanna give you all I got
Just to see if it's enough to lose

I don't wanna fly alone
I don't wanna die alone
Wish you are, wish you are
Well, it's me or it's you and I

All I want is a picket fence
And a window to the sea
A little house with a crooked door
But it's warm when you're with me

All I want is a picket fence
And a window to the sea
A little house with a crooked door
But it's warm, it's warm when you're with me
It's warm when you're with me

I'm penniless and broken for you
I'm penniless and broken for you
I wanna give you all I got
Just to see if it's enough to lose
Is it enough to lose
