

Weaponized

Make Them Suffer

You're assigned to breaking code until directed
And though you try feel something
You're as cold as the machines
That set fire to the world

Arise
Sleeper agent activated
A prototype placed into effect
Arise
Choker chain grip accelerated
You feel it tighten around your neck

And you're feeling
That you're disconnected, like you've been neglected, mechanized
Can't stop feeling
You've been misdirected, feeling manufactured, weaponized

A confused, controlled mistake
You're screaming for answers
To a world you can't relate

Arise
Sleeper agent activated
Operation in full effect
Arise
Programmed to kill, assassinator
Murderer

And you're feeling
That you're disconnected, like you've been neglected, mechanized
Can't stop feeling
You've been misdirected, feeling manufactured

Can't help feeling
That from this world, you've severed tied
Can't stop dreaming
You feel the strength of your confines
Can't stop feeling
You've been misdirected, feeling manufactured, weaponized

That still your life of grand design
Is built on the lies of those who made you

Make
Retaliate
Them
Exterminate
Pay
Eviscerate
Make them suffer
