

Chameleon

Mako

I got an animal in my head
Can she guess across the table?
Is it just a fable, I'll be there and back again
Another Hollywood masquerade
I don't know anyone on my playground
Can I get off this train or just slow it down?

'Cause I'm in the middle right now
Just trying to blend in by daylight
Swear I need a change, I'm lost
Chameleon
Nobody can hear you now
So you should be off parading
Don't you ever change, just stop
Chameleon

Oh watcha' think of swimming inside my cage?
Just a buzz before they see ya
I can't find none of my true, true colors in no box full of crayons
Another Hollywood escapade
I don't know anyone on my playground
Can I get off this train now, just slow it down

'Cause I'm in the middle right now
Just trying to blend in by daylight
Swear I need a change, I'm lost
Chameleon
Nobody can hear you now
So you should be off parading
Don't you ever change, just stop
Chameleon

Don't you ever change, just stop
Chameleon

Don't you change, you never stopped to say your goodbye
Goodbye, goodbye... are you happy now?

Nobody can hear you now
So you should be off parading
Don't you ever change, just stop
Chameleon
