Devil May Cry

Mako

I'm starting to crave it, I'm starting to need it
I'm not gonna fake what I know I believe in

Because you are holy water
I'm dying of thirst. No, I'm not gonna make it

I'd sell you my soul, if all it bought was another day
I'd give you my love, if all I got was a heartbreak
Please save me from hell, 'cause I've got one foot in the grave
If I made you my God
The Devil may cry

I've got too many sins
I've got too many problems
With one touch of your skin
You'd know how to solve them

Because you are holy water
I'm dying of thirst. No, I'm not gonna make it

I'd sell you my soul, if all it bought was another day
I'd give you my love, if all I got was a heartbreak
Please save me from hell, 'cause I've got one foot in the grave
If I made you my God
The Devil may cry

Devil may cry
