

Murder

Mako

If anybody else ever said that
I'd be outta here so fast
Run by that night
No, no
Then I caught you red handed
Smile at me like that
I couldn't let it slide

Under the rocks, your finger
Can't even lie, won't even try, no
I let you do whatever
Whatever you want, ever you gon' do
And you know it's true when

You get away with murder
I keep falling further
Trying not to fall in but you know
I do
Blood stains on the curtain
I know I should be nervous
But when you look so perfect
Well you get away with, get away with

Murder, murder (ooh)
Murder, murder (ooh)
Ya you get away with, get away with
Murder, murder (ooh)
Murder, murder (ooh)
Ya you get away, get away with

Maybe you should be at hand 'cause
'Cause you too much trouble
And you know I'm right, oh oh
Fingerprints on my skin
That goes all on the window
Every night

I'm wrapped around your finger
Can't even lie, won't even try, no
I led you to whatever
Ever you want, ever you gon' do
And you know it's true, you know it's—

You get away with murder
I keep falling further
Trying not to fall in but you know
I do
Blood stains on the curtain
I know I should be nervous
But when you look so perfect
Will you get away with, get away with

Murder, murder (ooh)
Murder, murder (ooh)
Ya you get away with, get away with
Murder, murder (ooh)
Murder, murder (ooh)

Ya you get away, get away with
Murder, murder (ooh)
Murder, murder (ooh)
Ya you get away with, get away with
Murder, murder (o-oh)
Murder, murder (o-o-oh)
Ya you get away, get away with
