

Killer

Mal Blum

I killed the ants in the garden
It wasn't hard, it wasn't hard
I don't think you understand me, lately
Baby, I'm all wrong

You know they said this would happen
All the bad men now I'm one
I killed the ants in the garden
And I didn't cry for them

Bad, is it bad? is it bad? is it? bad?
Bad, is it bad? like they said it was, said it was
Bad, is it bad? is it bad? is it? bad?
Bad, is it bad? like they said it was, said it was
So bad

I killed the flies on the front porch
Poured their corpses down the drain
Unceremonious murderer
The TV said I would change

I killed the previous tenant
In my head, or so they said
I think that's pretty reductive
But I'm tired, so, whatever you want

Bad, is it bad? is it bad? is it? bad?
Bad, is it bad? like they said it was, said it was
Bad, is it bad? is it bad? is it? bad?
Bad, is it bad? like they said it was, said it was
Said you would, said you would go bad

I killed the ants in the garden
And I swore I didn't mind
I know you don't understand me
So I let you have the lie
