

Side I'm On

Mal Blum

Up all night
You don't call
I don't mind
'Cause it's just another roadblock
I will re-route

And when we speak
I'm not there
It's not your fault
But there's nothing you can say now
I found you out
Though it's not a fair
Side I'm on now

Got to the party around two
I was not looking for you
But there you were
Heard your lover's in DC
What's that got to do with me?
I'm not sure

But what is luck?
Baby, I don't know
Made it to your room
Now I made it to your door
Now I made it to your bed
And you say it's alright
I'm not gonna leave
So I guess I'd better hide

Killer music, killer food
Killer care I have for you
I swear I do
I swear I do
If friends were dollars
I'd be rich
But no one even cares a bit
I wish they did

But what are friends?
Baby, I don't know
Maybe I could do
Without a few of them
No, I'm not alright
But the party never ends
I'm not gonna leave
So we'd better make amends

On the road
That's where I'll be
You don't have to look for me
I never leave
And of your lover in DC
If that lover, it were me
Wouldn't mean a thing

'Cause what is far?

Baby, I don't know
Sleeping in my car
When you call me on the phone
And you tell me to come home
Because things could be alright
I don't want to lie
So I'd better say goodnight

No, it's not a fair
Side I'm on now
But I know it's not a fair side you're on now
Still, it's not a fair side I'm on now
But I know it's not a fair
Side you're on now
