

Wait Forever, Baby

Mal Blum

Nothing you have felt before
Tonight you're sleeping on the floor
It's not the worst place to be

At the club
At the club you fell in love
You lost your mind
And you did some drugs
Or at least that's how it seemed

1, 2, 3 - it's a little bit like that
When you go walking by
I don't know how to act
And I try to keep my cool
But I never got it back in the first place
In the first place

And when you look like that
I think I know what you are thinking
You're a heart attack
And God I wish that I were drinking
'Cause I can't sit still
And I'm feeling like I might faint

Oh, it's a leap of faith
We're all gunning for a taste
Of something else
That we've never felt before

It's a leap of faith
And I admit, I love the chase
But I won't wait forever
Baby, I get bored

I won't wait forever, baby
I won't wait forever, baby
I won't wait forever, not for you

I won't wait forever, baby
I won't wait forever, baby
I won't wait forever, now, would you?

I won't wait forever, baby
I won't wait forever, baby
But I guess there's nothing else to do
