

So Long

Malcolm Todd

In the morning, he will rise
When once before he'd take his time
Now he feels he's in a rush
For he is losing his own love

The love that once was in her voice
Can not be heard through empty noise
And every rapid step she takes
Her memory fades some more away

In the morning, when I rise
When once before I'd take my time
Now I feel I'm in a rush
For I am losing my own love

The love that once was in your voice
Can not be heard through empty noise
And every rapid step you take
Your memory fades some more away

So long, please be safer
You can say you miss it
But I don't take favors
You're home, not often
But you live in my pocket, block it [?]

So long, please be safer
I can give you everything, but we're not neighbors
You know, I've lost it
You know I can't stop it, stop it

Oh, you pressure me
Time is lost, the lonely cost
'Cause to know I'm here impresses me
And I can't keep my phone
And you just wanna play your own game
There was no chance to choose
I'm sad you're in shower shoes

So long, please be safer
You can say you miss it
But I don't take favors
You're home, not often
But you live in my pocket, block it [?]

So long, please be safer
I can give you everything, but we're not neighbors
You know, I've lost it
You know I can't stop it, stop it

I'll stay and you play
Why you gotta go?
Who's got the Tuesday?
I don't wanna know who you are choosing
I know it's not always me
But you're not staying where I stay

I'll stay and you play
Girl, why you gotta go?
Who's got the Tuesday?
Girl, I don't wanna know who you are choosing
I know it's not always me
But you're not staying where I stay
