

Lost In The World

Maleek Berry

Baby wait o ah, yeah
O baby wait o (oh my baby wait for me now)
Baby wait o, yeah

She a good girl gone bad now, she ain't coming back again
Lost in the world for a minute, ain't coming back again
She don't wanna be saved no, she ain't coming back again
She say life is a drug and she lost in the world

You was the wifey material
You was the one in a million girl
I was still planning to get with you
Before the love was material girl
Before you changed up
Before you came up, now they all on you
Guess you were the one that got away
Girl I hope you find your way
She used to be the sweetest
Now she all over the world now
She got her mind on her money
Yeah she ain't thinking 'bout love now
No man can, no man can please her, please her no
If you ain't tryna spend that money
She go leave ya, leave ya

She a good girl gone bad now, she ain't coming back again
Lost in the world for a minute, ain't coming back again
She don't wanna be saved no, she ain't coming back again
She say life is a drug and she lost in the world

I hope you know I gave you all the wave
No lie I would've gave you my name
You wasn't patient enough for me
But that's a story for another day
Girl you know you played yourself
You know that I wish you well now
It's all on you
One day you'll find out that you don't know
What you got till it's gone now
You used to be the baddest
Mi no lie you still the baddest
I'd be lying if I said I don't miss that old ting girl
You the hardest yeah
No man can, no man can replace me (replace me no)
When you go to sleep at night press replay (replay yeah yeah)

She a good girl gone bad now, she ain't coming back again
Lost in the world for a minute, ain't coming back again
She don't wanna be saved no, she ain't coming back again
She say life is a drug and she lost in the world

Lost in the, lost in the world...
