

Abandon Hope

Malefice

Cross me once, more fool me
Cross me twice and you bleed
No time for morals my reputation intact
I'm still here when you're not looking
I may lay dormant
My guard is never down

Betray everything again
I have to pick up the pieces of everything you've lost

A shadow casts across my face
I'm already forgotten
The limelight shifts and no one hears my voice
I've gone and lost my way, searching for some guidance
The shadow moves
The light burns my eyes

So fickle I can't please everyone
I'll do what I want
Right now my enemies kept close to the edge of a knife

Betray everything again
I have to pick up the pieces of everything you've lost

Again I'm cast, I'm cast so far away
Reaching for answers I'm blind to
Abandon hope

Now all hope is lost, I've failed you
Again I'm cast, I'm cast so far away
Abandon hope
