As I Bleed

Malefice

As the birth of a new day touches my skin I inhale deeply
I feel so alive
Contempt in my existence, ready for another challenge
With a broad set of shoulders I'll take on the world

Watch me bleed for you
I'm getting closer than I've been before
Watch me bleed for you
I'm getting closer than I've been before
We'll get there in the end

I'm not ashamed of who I am
I've learnt my lessons the hard way
A man that dwells, is a man that fails
It's not about who's right or wrongs, it's about your happiness
I have a desire to make you proud

Watch me bleed for you
I'm getting closer than I've been before
Watch me bleed for you
I'm getting closer than I've been before
We'll get there in the end

Bleeding for you, waiting for resolve
I need to do something for myself, once and for all

The waves come crashing down
I'm knocked straight off my feet
With no body in sight, I'll pick myself up
It's the same old story, a shoulder to cry on
The roles reverse, I'm left to rot

Watch me bleed for you
I'm getting closer than I've been before
Watch me bleed for you
I'm getting closer than I've been before
We'll get there in the end
