Retribution

Malefice

A simple act of destruction, where did logic go
You coward, no pity for fools
No thought for your victims, running for their lives
Your gum, your choice, paint the town fking red

The blueprint for death perfectly constucted
A quick end for most, an easy way out
Another man made solution, a purpose built retribution

The voices in our head, can be a danger to us all
Don't let them speak for you, don't let them speak for you

A punishment, your silence now speak volumes
You cannot think, you cannot feel
With a heart already dead, a predator emerges
Your gun, your choice, pain the town fking red

The blueprint for death perfectly constucted
A quick end for most, an easy way out
Another man made solution, a purpose built retribution

The voices in our head, can be a danger to us all
Don't let them speak for you, don't let them speak for you

These evil faces lurk dep inside the mind of everyone
These evil faces lurk dep inside the mind of all of us
These evil faces lurk dep inside the mind of everyone
These evil faces lurk dep inside the mind of everyone

From man to monster with evil intent
All innocence is lost, driven to violnce
A punishment for all those times, that no one ever listened
Your gun, your choice, paint the town fking red
Paint the town fking red

The voices in our head, can be a danger to us all
Don't let them speak for you, don't let them speak for you
