

Keep Your Distance

Malevolence

Stay away from me
Negative energy
You bite the hand that feeds
Keep your distance

There is no compromise
No longer by your side
Stay away from me
Keep your distance

Pull down the mask from which you hide
Separate separate separate me
From your fucking disguise
You've got a lot to answer for
Will you hide
When wolves are at your door

Let's face the truth this time
You should've stayed in your own lane
I'm not the one to blame
When your world goes up in flames
Let's face the truth this time cause the facts still remain
Rock bottom, left with no option
Actions face consequence

First sign of a threat had you running for cover
You shake with one hand, stab in the back with the other
Heard everything that you're claiming to be
Trust me when I say, I am losing no sleep
Bring nothing to the table but you still wanna eat
Bloodsucker motherfucker
Bite the hand that feeds

Stay away from me
Negative energy
You bite the hand that feeds
Keep your distance

Stay away from me

Keep your distance
