

Outnumbered

Malevolence

Stand back and watch
Suffer the consequences
Now here to be seen when the push came to shove
Stood back arms crossed
Look what they've done to your friend
Slim chance of pulling through
So weak, no one stands up for a man on the ground
Face down in the dirt
Take the hand of solitude, stand up for the ones who Trusted you
Outnumbered

And they all stood back and watched
Stuck rooted on the spot
And they all stood back arms crossed
As a companion was lost

There's no escaping the lies
I see the truth
Just know that I don't give a fuck about you

Time went by, it was an eye for an eye
Always promised that your back was mine
I never thought that in the face of death
I would ever leave unsatisfied

Outnumbered

Pushed to the edge
Face down again
My will to survive has been put to the test
My will to survive
Has been put to the test

Outnumbered
