

The Beast Awakened

Malevolent Creation

Anguish in the minds of the pure
Blackened hearts now free
I long for the blessed days
When my demons are set, loose and free
Free from the shackles of life
I awake in bloodborne splendour
Years have passed since I saw the light
I'm born again in this mind of hate

Beasts of our sickness, we shall purify as one
This beast that smells your blood,
It's from me you cannot hide

Awake, this demon inside with blackened eyes
Flesh, the beast that smells your
Blood is teething
Blood, a hunger born from pain inside
Death, this beast is to be born to
My splendour bring
Feel my anger, fuel the machine that
Controls this life
Feed my anger,
Give birth to the ways of flesh
Feel my anger,
An empty shell what's left of me
Feed my anger, filled to the brim
I explode in hate

Beasts of our sickness, we shall purify as one
The beast that smells your blood, it's from me you cannot hide

You cannot hide - this beast inside
Your empty prayers - won't save you!

My amusement feeds on the hearts
Of the impure
Selfish groups amongst the poor
You pray to me once more,
This beast I cannot hide
Feeding the beast which dwells inside,
Pathetic waste of life
You beg from me once more,
This beast I cannot hide

With arms raised high you pray to God,
No-one hears your cries
This feeling deep inside my mind,
I have no choice but abide

This beast inside has awakened,

Meet your end now soon
This beast inside has awakened,
Your prayers will go unheard
This beast inside has awakened,
Thoughts set free within the mind
This beast inside has awakened,
The beast inside will smell your blood

Wake, this demon inside with blackened eyes
Flesh, the beast that smells your
Blood is teething
Blood, hunger born from pain inside
Death, this beast is to be born to
My splendour bring
Feel my anger, fuel the machine
That controls this life
Feed my anger,
Give birth to the ways of flesh
Feel my anger,
An empty shell what's left of me
Feed my anger,
Filled to the brim I explode in hate
