

Trapped Inside

Malevolent Creation

Trapped inside this mind of mine
My instinct hides the ways of truth
Splendour born in the claws of might
The joys of the flesh are what I hide

Can you feel my pain
My mind is overcome
Take this pain away
Only one way to overcome

Thoughts unimaginary, thoughts unclean
My intentions pure, intent to be free
Break the seal, unleash the beast
I've started it now, this has to end
I know it's wrong, my mind is locked
Tear at the surface, ripping at my soul
Pain is real, you're my escape
Pain I feel, you have to die

You bleed for me, my only trial
I've bled for you, your life is mine
Fingers twitch, I anticipate
The aroma of death for me

Can you feel my pain
My mind is overcome
Take this pain away
Only one way to overcome

Trapped inside this mind of mine
My instinct hides the ways of truth
Splendour born in the claws of might
The joys of the flesh are what I hide

Trapped inside this mind of mine
My instinct hides the ways of truth
Splendour born in the claws of might
The joys of the flesh are what I hide

Broken bodies in the furnace
Devoid of flesh, separate from bones
My plan is soon unfolding
The stench of the bodies overwhelms

Broken bodies in the furnace
Devoid of flesh, separate from bones
My plan is soon unfolding
The stench of the bodies overwhelms

Can you feel my pain
My mind is overcome
Take this pain away
Only one way to overcome

You bleed for me, my only trial
I've bled for you, your life is mine
Fingers twitch, I anticipate
The aroma of death remains

Broken bodies in the furnace
Devoid of flesh, separate from bones
My plan is soon unfolding
The stench of the bodies overwhelms
