Malice Mizer

The voice of temptation whispers at your ear
The sound of fear upsets your heart
The innumerable shadows you can see change into different shapes around you -- around this gloomy place
The voice of temptation whispers at your ear -- the sound of fear ...

Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapses and takes in the stillness around you

Break out from the dark
Release your dark mind
And awake -- the end of agony

Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapses and takes in the stillness around you

Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapses and takes in the stillness around you
-- the scream suddenly becomes wind

Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapses and takes in the stillness around you
-- the sorrow suddenly turns into kindness
