Malice Mizer

Caught between the crevice of delusion and reality surge vague twine rip assault mind through the shattered pieces of glass countless rays of light are reflected

In my ruined and dissoluted mind
I ridicule nihilism, I dissipate in solitary
Cold blood flows
My faded mind is flipping through

From yonder of darkness, pierced light awakens the past
Eternity of time is ticking away endlessly, Reminiscence
From yonder of time, the present tied to the past
With pieces of recollection, Reminiscence

From yonder of darkness, the broken pieces of recollection, Reminiscence
Eternity of time is ticking away endlessly, Reminiscence

Why am I here nowhere ?
Just stare at the end of the everlasting infinity
Enormous wandering shadows are crumbling
Time passes as your heart mingles with the flowing waters

From yonder of darkness, the broken pieces of recollection, Reminiscence
Eternity of time is ticking away endlessly, Reminiscence

Slimy hole binds detain insane sensual surge vague twine assault mind
Crumbling forms are closing in towards me
I wish everything would collapse and scatter away

From yonder of darkness, pierced light, Reminiscence
Recollection, Reminiscence
Reminiscence
