

Beautiful Disaster

Maliq & D'Essentials

Let's just be frank about each other
So long we act like the great pretender
I ain't no Casanova, just a romance beginner
Would it be nice or would it be another disaster
It seems so hard to make decision
As if we know what's going to happen
For all I know that you're one of a kind in a million
So should we take this chance but just keep it silent

If loving you is wrong I don't want to make it right
Slowly we can make it right
Can somebody tell me

'Cause I want it so bad I can't wait much longer to know if you want it
So tell me is it love, is it love, is it love that lasts

We're young, careless and happy
To start something extraordinary
It takes no magic spell 'cause we have the chemistry
So would we ever be like ebony and ivory

If loving you is wrong I don't want to make it right
Slowly we can make it right
Can somebody tell me

'Cause I want it so bad I can't wait much longer to know if you
want it
So tell me is it love, is it love, is it love that lasts
'Cause I want it so bad I can't wait much longer to know if you
want it
So tell me is it love, is it love, is it love, I don't know

Eeny meeny miny moe, can we make our love grow
Or we could be called a beautiful disaster
Eeny meeny miny moe, can we make our love grow
Or we could be called a beautiful disaster
Eeny meeny miny moe, can we make our love grow
Or we could be called a beautiful disaster
Eeny meeny miny moe, can we make our love grow
Or we could be called a beautiful disaster
