

Hello

Mallory Knox

She's got five lives that she's got to save
And shes thrown them all away
And she doesn't know how to feel
Her decision is not made by me
So I'll write you a love song and lie through my teeth
The choices you've made they don't sit well with me

Hello, I am looking for her out there
Why hasn't anybody seen her?
And is there any kind of way to find her
Hello, I am looking for her out there
(and I am looking for her out there)
Hasn't anybody seen her?
(and hasn't anybody seen her?)
And is there any kind of way to find her

And this old way we were
You said you would make it work
But you never could show me proof
Show me proof
So wash the dirt from your clothes
Take what you own
Runaway from promises made
Made back when we really cared, really cared
The secrets you've been keeping they have been let out

Hello, I am looking for her out there
Why hasn't anybody seen her?
And is there any kind of way to find her
Hello, I am looking for her out there
(and I am looking for her out there)
Hasn't anybody seen her?
(and hasn't anybody seen her?)
And is there any kind of way to find her

To find her, to find her, to find her
To find her, hello
To find her, hello
To find her, hello

Hello, yes I am looking for her out there
Why hasn't anybody seen her?
And is there any kind of way to find her
Hello, I am looking for her out there
Why hasn't anybody seen her?
And is there any kind of way to find her
Hello, yes I am looking for her out there
(yes I am looking for her out there)
Why hasn't anybody seen her?
(why hasn't anybody seen her)
And is there any kind of way to find her
