

Pavement

Mallrat

Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Never seeing progress, progress, sucker's gotta
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath

Oh, the light on the rain, on the pavement
I don't mind, I'm on my way, you're my favourite
And your light hit my face like a straight right
Walking slow, to your place in a straight line

Oh, the light, and the rain, and now you're driving
Watch the raindrop shadow race along my thigh, and
Like a spell that you cast, I'm a goner
There's so much I haven't said yet but I wanna

I'm going through something new
To keep you by my side, maybe another night

Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Never seeing progress, progress, sucker's gotta
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath

Oh, your light is too bright for a picture
I've got angels and I wanna share them with ya
And they pour water down from a big sky
Now there's rain on the pavement under streetlights

Oh, the light on the rain, on the pavement
Time to pour out all the love that I've been saving
Like a spell that you cast, I'm a goner
There's so much I haven't said yet but I wanna

I'm going through something new
To keep you by my side, maybe another night

Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Never seeing progress, progress, sucker's gotta
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath

Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
I'm going through something new
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Never seeing progress, progress, sucker's gotta
To keep you by my side
Told to break yourself, don't talk, save your breath
Maybe another night
