

You're my darling, I'm on standby
Doesn't make sense, don't understand why
Keep me guessing, make me crazy
Who's been messing with my baby?

Fuck you for playing games with my heart
And keeping me in the dark, I loved you right from the start

Maybe I'll fall in love with a rock star, we'll be married forever
I'll forget all about you one day
Maybe when I've won all the Grammys and I've got my own family
I'll forget all about you one day
Maybe I'll fall in love with a rock star, we'll be married forever
I'll forget all about you one day
Maybe when I've won all the Grammys and I've got my own family
I'll forget all about you one day

I get you high, you roll me up in your Backwoods
I'm moving forward while you're slipping on backwards
It breaks my heart, oh baby, baby, you're tragic
Don't think you're slick for cashing in on my magic

Like a movie scene standing in the rain
When you call my name, it'll be too late

Maybe I'll fall in love with a rock star, we'll be married forever
I'll forget all about you one day
Maybe when I've won all the Grammys and I've got my own family
I'll forget all about you one day
Maybe I'll fall in love with a rock star, we'll be married forever
I'll forget all about you one day
Maybe when I've won all the Grammys and I've got my own family
I'll forget all about you one day

(One day) It breaks my heart, oh baby, baby, you're tragic
Don't think you're slick for cashing in on my magic
