

Stay

Mallrat

Well I thought that you were joking
When you said that you were broken
And I'm not sure when or why my little sister started smoking
But it made sense to our mother
And they're talking to each other again
And I was wondering

Do you wanna stay, do you wanna stay, do you wanna stay with me
Do you wanna wait, do you wanna wait, do you wanna wait for me?
Was it a mistake, was it a mistake, was it a mistake to leave?
And do you wanna stay?

Well I thought I heard you knocking
So I opened up my door
But nobody was there and I have nothing to report
And it reminds me of the ghost you say you're living on your floor
I remember, I remember

When it looked like you were in love and I couldn't miss you more
And I didn't say a thing about it, didn't think to talk
Oh I was sleepin' in like Snow White
I was sleeping on the floor
And I stopped wondering

Do you wanna stay, do you wanna stay, do you wanna stay with me
Do you wanna wait, do you wanna wait, do you wanna wait for me?
Was it a mistake, was it a mistake, was it a mistake to leave?
And do you wanna stay?

Do you wanna stay, do you wanna stay, do you wanna stay with me
Do you wanna wait, do you wanna wait, do you wanna wait for me?
Was it a mistake, was it a mistake, was it a mistake to leave?
And do you wanna stay? (Stay, stay, stay, stay, stay)

Stay, stay, stay, stay, stay
Stay, stay, stay, stay, stay
