

Breaking the Illusion

Malrun

Let's shatter into pieces,
And break into nothing,
This is favoured to another life.
Everything we were,
Scattered in the dark,
And I won't let you bring me down with you.

Forgive me,
But now I'm moving forward,
Searching for some place to
Forgive me,
For shutting down completely,
You're the only reason that I'm done.

You lied and you deceived me,
Led me into darkness,
Torn of all the faith I had in you.
And everything we were,
Has fallen into flames,
But I won't let you bring me down with you.

Forgive me,
But now I'm moving forward,
Searching for some place to
Forgive me,
For shutting down completely,
You're the only reason that I'm done.

I will not break you
No I will not
BREAK
I will not break
I will not break.
I will not break.

I can't live on,
I can't live on believing in you,
I can't live on
I can't live on believing in you

Forgive me,
But now I'm moving forward,
Searching for some place to
Forgive me,
For breaking the illusion,
You're the only reason that I'm done.

That I'm done
I won't let you bring me down with you.
