

Confessions

Malrun

Let's go

Consequence
Of my arrogance
Need the fix
Need to feel that I'm
Still alive
Somehow
Still alive
Need the skin
In the game we're in

Reaching
Reaching out again
For your blood
To gloryfy me

And if but for a while
I feel like I reside
Behind the door that Death
Forgot to
Come and knock on (knock on)
Come and knock on

Everything
I have everything
At my side
Yet it's still never
Quite enough
Never quite enough
To convince
The reflection
Inside the mirror
That all is fine
Starring me right
In the eye

Reaching
Reaching out again
For your blood
To gloryfy me

And if but for a while
I feel like I reside
Behind the door that Death
Forgot to
Come and knock on (knock on)
Come and knock on
