

Cycle of Abuse

Malrun

Come walk in line
Along barbed wire
My idea of a good time
You see these scars
I earned them all
And they made me what I am

Control
Subliminal
Insecurity is such a bitch
Bow down
Submissively
Time will justify the means

I decide now to hurt you
Tie you down
Like I always do
This is how I have learned to love
Build it up
Just to ram it down

I will go on
Let the cycle be complete
I will go on
Never set you free...

The grand display
The scheme of life
While in fact I envy you
You caring eyes
And heartfelt smile
Just too proud to let you know

You are
The spark of life
And I always seem to run on fumes
Waiting
Volatile
For the flames to set me free

The battered wings
That I tore apart
To make us crash and burn

I decide now to hurt you
Tie you down
Like I always do
This is how I have learned to love
Build it up
Just to ram it down

I will go on
Let the cycle be complete
I will go on
Never set you free...
