

Dance of the Satyr

Malrun

Barely recognize the man I've become
The demon hits me hard like a dream
Taking part in any atrocity
I am drawn like a moth to this flame now

Shameless
Coz I've been dancing with the Satyr again
Haven't been stainless
Since I crossed the last boundary
Shameless

What's ever gonna save me?

Haven't slept for seven nights in a row
This madness trip is taking its toll
I am plowing through the dark side of life
While I complete the list of all known sins

Shameless
Coz I've been dancing with the Satyr again
Haven't been stainless
Since I crossed the last boundary
Shameless

So is the demon really real
Or just my excuse to feel
Something, something, something
Anything

Shameless
Coz I've been dancing with the Satyr again
Haven't been painless
Since I crossed the last boundary
Freedom
