

Light the Way

Malrun

In my Darkened room
I float in a stream
Somewhere out of time

Slowly
Hovering
While gliding closer to the edge
To the edge

Got to get up and leave
But I'm falling ever deeper

Light the way
Show me home
Coz I'm drowning here
Light the way
You are my everything
And I'm not gonna lose you tonight

"Please all
Gather round
It's time now to bid a last farewell
There's no
Hope for him
It's time to send him on his way"
On my way?

You never left my side
And you never lost your faith

Light the way
Show me home
Coz I'm drowning here
Light the way
You are my everything
And I'm not gonna lose you tonight

From our heart's desire
Let the flame burn higher
From our heart's desire
Let the flame burn

Light the way
Show me home
Coz I'm drowning here
Light the way
You are my everything
And I'm not gonna lose you tonight
