

The Underworld

Malrun

Visions unclear
And the shadows blind my eyes
Choking in the air
Ashamed of death surrounds me
A black light consumes
All the colors fade
Devastating
Hallucinations in my mind

Thinking only of one thing
Self-destruction within

I'm free falling through the empty space
Another night has passed away and I'm still alive
Inside my mind so blind and lost
I'm falling down to the under world

Melting into nothing
From the hand of my own disdain
Nowhere left to run
Eradicate my conscience

Breaking the trust
Everyone's a stranger
Burning the page
With the solution why

I'm free falling through the empty space
Another night has passed away and I'm still alive
Inside my mind so blind and lost
I'm falling down to the under world

(solo)

I am falling, facing my ending

I'm free falling through the empty space
Another night has passed away and I'm still alive
Inside my mind so blind and lost
I'm falling down to the under world
