Why did I like you?
We didn't get along at all
I held my friend and yelled at her
But just with your one call, it's back to only you

Whenever I get tired
You always treat me so affectionately
Whenever I need you
You say you're busy and I'm all alone

Even when you're here, it hurts
I miss you but what can I do?
I don't want to be obvious
What if you think I'm sad?
I'm so pathetic, pathetic, yeah

Uh, I can't stop, I found you
But feels like I'm the only one so that makes me mad
I don't understand
But hurting this much? I'm used to it

Don't pity me, no, do as you always did
Because that's you
Even if you poke my heart
And spit out careless words
It's only you for me
So I'm drinking a beer tonight
And lamenting over my life

Even when you're here, it hurts
I miss you but what can I do?
I don't want to be obvious
What if you think I'm sad?
I'm so pathetic, pathetic, yeah

I recognize
I've been pushed to one side
I can't push this back, I want to clear this up, quickly
It's an annoying night
Love and hate
This isn't the first time, I'm sensitive
Everyday I falling love again
I hate myself for acting calm
You made it

Even when you're here, it hurts
I miss you but what can I do?
I don't want to be obvious
What if you think I'm sad?
I'm so pathetic, pathetic, yeah

Call me call me
Everyday every night
Hug me hug me
Everywhere every time
Love me love me
Everyday every night
But I'm lonely so lonely
Every day, so pathetic
