

No Tolerance for Imperfection

Man Must Die

Self-awareness rules your life
Incisions made under the knife
Decisions that you will regret
Man made monster

Disconnect your brain, just let it go
Learning from a magazine is all you know
Obsessed with how you want to look
And how you are perceived
You'd sell it all, mind body and soul for fame
After your body even change your name
It's not who you are it's who you blow
Your self-respect pissed away in one go

You think they give a fuck?
You think they even care?
There's plenty more where you came from please take a chair

The path to hell's paved with your intentions
A plastic rack and fake hair extensions

Dreams come undone!

Left in constant agony through surgery
Demonstrating lack of integrity
A cocaine nosebleed and a head full of bad memories
Never ending downward spiral

The lights are on but nobody's at home
Starve yourself, there's nothing left but skin and bone
So ugly on the inside you can't bear to look at yourself

You'd sell it all, mind body and soul for fame
After your body even change your name
It's not who you are it's who you blow
Your self-respect pissed away in one go

Down and out
Blood splattered angel
Dreams are left unfound

Down
I want to tell you something
And out
Your kind's a fucking disgrace
Blood splattered angel
And out
In their world there is NO TOLERANCE FOR IMPERFECTION.
