

Severe facial reconstruction

Man Must Die

Lie awake, in this trance I
This numbing pain

A victim of shame
I try but cannot shake this hate
Born inside me

I walk the streets each and every night
With this urge, never gonna beat me,

You cant see me
Subject to a brutal death

Tred my feet light, never gonna beat me,
You cant see me
Subject to a brutal death
Suffocation

I tear at her face,
Blood in my mouth I taste
It reconstruct her face
My violent masterpiece

Face clown in a. pool of blood
Still alive but only just
Thats the beauty of my work
I let her live-with the face I see

I see demons inside of me
Sadistic tendencies
Wont rest till I can see
Hatred set free

You cant stop me
