

Lifeline

Man Overboard

Should I pick up where we left off?
Is the love still there or have we all moved on?
Let me pack my things and I'll hit the road
No road maps, kill the radio
Let the silence be my only lifeline

Should I pick up where we left off?
I've been hurt and I've been dead wrong
Felt the love and pain all in harmony
Am I still the man that I used to be?
Now I'm gone and time will move on

It's pitch black outside and
There's everywhere to hide
I gotta relate somehow
No matter what she says I'm gonna figure it out and
Nobody will, nobody can
Take me from you tonight
I'll tighten my grip with all my might
I'm holding on for dear life
I can see it in her eyes

Should I pick up where we left off?
Is the love still there or have we all loved on?
This is all to much so I gotta go
Left the stage for a piece of a broken home
Let the silence be my only lifeline

It's pitch black outside and
There's everywhere to hide
I gotta relate somehow
No matter what she says I'm gonna figure it out and
Nobody will, nobody can
Take me from you tonight
I'll tighten my grip with all my might
I'm holding on for dear life
I can see it in her eyes

It's August and she swears as
She's tying back her hair
Things are different now
She's got all those problems figured out and
Nobody will, nobody can
Take it away this time
She's gotta feel good before she dies
I'm holding on for dear life
She's gotta feel right before she dies

Should I pick up where we left off?
Is the love still there or have we all moved on?
Let me pack my things and I'll hit the road
No road maps, kill the radio
Let the silence be my only lifeline

I gotta relate somehow
No matter what she says I'm gonna figure it out and
Nobody will, nobody can

Take me from you tonight
I'll tighten my grip with all my might
I'm holding on for dear life
I can see it in her eyes...
