

Stop, stop, see the sign
Can't you all read? Don't cross the line
Go for whatever, lust for the better
We're all so goddamn hypnotized

Chop, chop, spread the lies
Don't you blame me, you're mesmerized
Birds of a feather flocking together
Join the hell here, we're one of a kind

Bias paranoia floating in the air
Empty sham detractors, they don't even care

Another one falling down
Drowning in the vertigo
Going mad with the crowd
Buzzing with his libido

Now they're all looking for a new stimulation
Next revelation, see them go for the same fabrication
Discrimination, classification, jolly internet masturbation
Agitation, allegation, suffocation, aggravation
All through the nation, termination, extermination
Deflagration with no destination

Bias paranoia floating in the air
Dead to shame imposters, do they even care?

Another one falling down
Drowning in the vertigo
Going mad with the crowd
Buzzing with her libido

You're one of them now
You're one of us now

So pick one random someone for your enemy
Click one random button for your ecstasy
Aim and prey, escape too late, can't run from me
Burn in flames, unsay too late, now you're going down

Another one falling down
Drowning in the vertigo
Going mad with the crowd
Buzzing with his libido

Another one falling down
Drowning in the vertigo
Going mad with the crowd

You're one of them now
You're one of us now
